

HISTORY

In 1993, Kenne Shepherd founded her own architecture firm, Kenne Shepherd Interior Design • Architecture PLLC, to provide a comprehensive range of professional services to both retail and corporate clients. Ms. Shepherd has built her reputation as an accomplished and highly skilled architect on her ability to design built environments that give both shape and meaning to the identity of her clients and their product.

The firm's practice is founded on Ms. Shepherd's keen awareness of market trends, expert understanding of merchandising, and utmost respect for the bottom-line. Recently distinguished by Design & Display Ideas magazine as one of today's top 100 design firms, her standard of design excellence coupled with an unwavering passion for detail has produced several award-winning projects for such noted clients as Calvin Klein, Bergdorf Goodman, Lancôme, and Salvatore Ferragamo.
